

WRC Remote Learning Camp: 1st-5th grades welcome

CAMP INFORMATION

1. The Remote Learning Camp is a school environment to encourage and assist students, attending schools inside the USD 353 district, with learning. The WRC will NOT be providing activities beyond what is traditionally done in a school environment.
2. Camp will be held Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. Check in starts at 11:30 am. Camp takes place from 12:00-3:30 pm. There will be NO camp on Wednesdays unless otherwise noted.
3. Camp is limited to the first 24 students to register.
4. Students may not arrive or leave whenever they want. They will be required to be here for the entire camp time.
5. Camp will not be held when there is no school. (inservice, vacation, weather cancellation, etc.)
6. Lunch will NOT be provided by the WRC.
7. Snacks (food/drink) can be purchased at our concession stand or prepackaged snacks brought by students will be permitted during designated break times.
8. Each child will be expected to have their own school supplies.
9. The WRC will not provide computers for students. Wireless internet will be made available to all participants.
10. Check-in/out for all campers will be inside WRC's front east lobby. Student's temperatures will be taken first, followed by a parent/guardian's signature on the RLC Waiver.
11. All campers will be screened with their temperatures taken, Campers can be sent home if they have a fever of 100.4 or above, exhibit COVID-19 symptoms, or have been exposed to COVID-19 elsewhere.
12. Students will not be allowed to bring any personal items aside from school supplies.
13. WRC will be following the same COVID-19 protocols established by USD353, in conjunction with the Sumner County Health Department, as well as protocols established by the Kansas Recreation and Park Association.
14. Parents will need to call the WRC BEFORE camp starts if their child is ill.
15. Students are required to wear a mask.
16. Staff will wear a mask and appropriate PPE at all times.
